

Aims and Scope

Belles Lettre - an annual multidisciplinary research oriented book published by Karimpur Pannadevi College, Nadia, aims in publishing the finest research articles in literature, humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences. Belles Lettre provides a platform for researchers to disseminate research findings, new research areas and techniques, conceptual developments and articles with practical applications and contributions to society. This also paves way for collaborative research across various disciplines. Articles submitted in Belles Lettre should describe original and previously unpublished research works, not currently under review by any other journal / book. All submitted articles are reviewed quickly, professionally copyedited, and checked for similarity to avoid plagiarism for quality and faster publication.
